The Queen of England Addresses the Coronavirus.

1. I am speaking to you because it is a difficult and tough time. A time of sadness
2. in the life of our wonderful country. There are going to be a lot of changes
3. because of this.

4. I want to thank everyone who has been working hard in the hospitals to help
5. us. They have been very selfless and important. Everybody in the country is 6. grateful for their work, they deserve all the applause they get. This is because
7. they are making life easier for us; and through their hard work I am sure we will
8. return back to normal.

9. I also want to thank those of you who are staying at home. Because of you
10. people's lives are being protected. If we work together we will be able to get
11. out of this sticky situation soon.

12. I hope in the future we will be able to look back and be proud of how we
13. have managed to deal with this pandemic. We will be able to overcome this
14. pandemic because we have the characteristics which are needed. We are 15. obedient, caring and loving. We have heard a number of stories around the 16. world about people coming together to help others. In some cases people
17. have delivered food parcels and medicines, and in other cases some have
18. been checking up on neighbours.
